What is the Global VWD Call to Action?

The Global VWD Call to Action is an act of solidarity amongst WFH national member organizations (NMOs) to recognize VWD and break the stigma and isolation that can exist for people living with VWD.

It promotes adequate care and treatment for people with VWD.

45 National Member Organizations have already signed on!

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
elearning.wfh.org/elearning-centres/vwd/
or www.wfh.org/VWD
The Netherlands Hemophilia Society is involved in the development of national guidelines on von Willebrand Disease.

In Tunisia, l’Association Tunisienne de l’Hémophilie hosted a workshop on care and treatment for people with VWD and used social media to raise awareness about VWD.

The Federación de Hemofilia de la República Mexicana (Mexico) raised awareness on VWD to doctors and healthcare professionals.

The South African Haemophilia Foundation created leaflets, newsletter articles, and posters sharing information on VWD.

The Sudanease Hemophilia Care Association (Sudan) gave lectures to healthcare professionals and hosted a workshop on VWD.

Liga Colombiana de Hemofílicos (Colombia) dedicated a part of their annual conference to VWD.

How to sign on

Step 1: Review the Global Call to Action and discuss it with your NMO’s Board of Directors

Step 2: Reflect on what action your organization can implement

Step 3: Sign on! There are two options to sign on:

- Submit the form online

-OR-

- Print the PDF and submit it via fax to the WFH at +1-514-875-8615. Follow up with an email to vwd@wfh.org to let us know you have signed on!

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
elearning.wfh.org/elearning-centres/vwd/
or www.wfh.org/VWD